Name of Student: _____

I understand that the above student may be suspended or expelled from the Summer School Program, without refund of any money paid, as a result of instigating or participating in any disturbance that interrupts routine class procedures or for failure to comply with Tangipahoa Parish School System regulations.

In addition I understand the above student may work from home to complete all lessons with the exception of Topic Tests and Cumulative Exams. Failure to complete a course will NOT result in a refund of any money. Tests and exams must be completed under the supervision of a TPSS teacher during regular summer school hours. Students may enroll in and pay for up to two half-credit classes at a time. Upon 100% completion of a course the student may enroll in and pay for another class. Student and parent can monitor progress through an on-line report.

Anytime a student reports to the summer school campus the student must be dressed appropriately.
